Break-Up Day – Friday, 8 December

The last day of Term, Friday, 8 December, will follow the same plan as previous years. Children are asked to bring morning tea as usual and lunch to share in their class groups. School will finish at 3.00pm.

Currumbin Camp – Year 5/6

Six students from Years 5 and 6 and our Chaplain, Don Truss, enjoyed two nights camping at Currumbin Community Farm School last week with other students and teachers from Ma Ma Creek, Mt Whitestone and Helidon State Schools.

Heading off to Currumbin Community Farm School

Ken Mitchell – Retirement Morning Tea – Thursday, 30 November

Last Thursday, 30 November, the school hosted a special morning tea to farewell Ken Mitchell who has retired after serving as the Flagstone Creek State School Groundsman for the past 32 years. It was a great opportunity to thank Ken and to wish him and his wife Jan a long and happy retirement. Thank you for sending along a plate of morning tea to share.

Return of Library Books

All Library Books need to be returned tomorrow to allow a stocktake to be completed before the end of the school year.

2018 Booklist / Bulk Order Packs

The 2018 Booklist and Bulk Order Pack forms were attached to the Newsletter two weeks ago and have been emailed to families. They are also available on the school website.

Christmas Hamper Donation Thanks

The P&C would like to thank everyone who donated non-perishable items for the Christmas Hampers that will be raffled at the Break-Up BBQ and Concert tomorrow night.
