Flagstone Creek State School commitment to learning and wellbeing

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

A positive school ethos and rich learning environment that is open, respectful, caring and safe optimises learning through a commitment to wellbeing.

Flagstone Creek State School does this by:

- Supporting all students in learning and behaviour
- Involving parents with their child/ren's learning needs.
- Including pastoral care in daily school life.
- Catering for and supporting the needs of all children
- Reward and recognise positive behaviour as stated in the school Responsible Behaviour Plan.
- Ongoing commitment to professional development.

CURRICULUM AND PEDAGOGY

Curriculum that enhances wellbeing equips students with the knowledge, skills, attitudes and strategies to understand and manage themselves and their relationships.

Pedagogy that enhances wellbeing builds positive relationships.

Flagstone Creek State School does this by:

- Following the C2C units and planning for differentiation throughout units and daily lessons.
- All classroom staff cater for a range of learning abilities, backgrounds and preferred learning styles.
- Embedding social and emotional learning through all daily interactions.
- Providing extracurricular activities for students
- Providing students many opportunities to support, encourage and help each other.
- Providing opportunities for staff to attend appropriate professional development.
